Life before and during Lockdown - our last twelve months

After four months of lockdown, London is beginning to open up again after some quite unprecedented market and business disruption.

Here at Farebrother, many of us are now in the office most days and it's great to be back together again. Although hard not to focus on the current situation, we've also been looking back over a whole year to what we've achieved, both before and during lockdown:

In the last twelve months, Farebrother have:

Bought and sold over £100 million of investment property

Acquired new workspace for over 1000 people

Advised on over 500,000 sq ft of development pipeline stock

Concluded 66 lettings over 73 floors, totalling nearly 300,000 sq ft, in 39 buildings

Project managed the installation of 875 new workstations

Saved our clients circa £5.8 million in rates liability, across the country

Undertook workplace strategy studies on over 100,000 sq ft of occupier space

Acted on over 100 rent reviews, lease renewals and re-gears on 700,000 sq ft across central London

We celebrated our 220th anniversary last year and we've experienced a lot since 1799...

We're a partner led multi-disciplinary property consultant, embedded in our marketplace and we can advise on all aspects of your real estate.

How can we help you?
